

How to Ask for a Divorce

For spouses/registered domestic partners who agree

Use this packet ONLY if:

- You and your spouse or registered domestic partner agree on the terms of your divorce, and
- Your spouse or registered domestic partner will sign the court papers to show that s/he agrees.

Important! If one of you is pregnant now, or a child was born after you separated, the other spouse/registered domestic partner is considered the legal parent. If you do not think the other spouse/registered domestic partner is the parent, in most cases you can ask the court to determine who the legal parents are (parentage) by filing a case to disestablish paternity before the child turns 4 years old. Parentage needs to be determined for any child born during the marriage before your case is finalized. If you are in this situation, talk to a lawyer.

Talk to a lawyer, if you can

These instructions are legal information, not legal advice. It's a good idea to talk to a lawyer before you file any forms. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you can:

- Find a lawyer to help you with the most difficult parts of your case, such as reviewing your forms, explaining how to get ready for court and confirming this is the best legal action for your case. You can contact the King County Bar Association to ask for a referral.
- Ask the Family Law Facilitator's office for a list of low-cost and free legal resources.

Parenting Plan (Proposed)	DR 01.0400		<input type="checkbox"/>
Declaration Regarding Public Assistance	DRPSCU 01.0600		<input type="checkbox"/>

How many copies do I need?

- Original set to file with the Clerk's office.
- Copy 1 is for your records.
- Copy 2 is to give to the other party.
- Make a 3rd copy if you have a child(ren) who has received public assistance at some point. You must deliver copies of your filed forms to the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, Family Support Section.

Step 3: Take your original forms to the Clerk's Office and pay a fee

The Clerk will ask you to pay a filing fee. If you cannot afford to pay the fee, ask for an application to let you file for free. This application is called a Motion and Declaration for Waiver of Civil Filing Fees and Surcharges (Kent or Seattle).

Important! When you file your forms, the clerk will give you two copies of your Case Schedule. You will keep 1 copy for your records and give one copy to the other party

Step 4: Choose a date to go to Court to finish your divorce

To finish your divorce, you must fill out and file the Note for Motion Docket (Kent or Seattle). That form lets you choose a date for your court hearing. The date you choose must be at least 14 days after the day you file the Note for Motion Docket and at least 91 days after the date:

- You filed your joint Petition for Dissolution, or
- Your spouse or registered domestic partner signed the Joinder (if s/he signed after you filed the Petition)

Important! If you are not ready to finish your divorce, you can file your papers in Steps 1 and 2, and file the Note for Motion Docket form when you are ready. Continue to follow your case schedule.

Step 5: You and your spouse/registered domestic partner must go to a family law class

You must both go to a class, called Family Law Orientation. This class will explain how the courts handle divorces. And it will tell you where you can find information and help. The deadline to complete this class is listed on your Case Schedule.

Go to Family Court Services to find out the cost and how to sign up.

If you have children under 18, you must both go to a parenting class

Both parents must go to a parenting class called What About the Children. You must complete the class by the deadline listed on your Case Schedule.

Go to Family Court Services to find out the cost and how to sign up.

Step 6: Look at your Joinder (last page of your Petition or separate “Joinder” form)

If your spouse or registered domestic partner checked the box “I demand notice of all further proceedings in this matter,” s/he must:

- Sign the completed documents in Step 7, or
- You must give him/her the Note for Motion Docket along with completed documents in Step 7, 14 days before the hearing date for personal service, or 17 days before the hearing date if mailed.

You must take a completed Declaration of Mailing form to your hearing to prove that your spouse/partner was properly served.

Step 7: Go to your court hearing to finalize your divorce

Fill out these forms and bring them to your hearing. You may have to pay a fee for review of your documents at the final hearing.

All of these forms in Step 7 can be downloaded at: www.courts.wa.gov/forms/
